

Master of Politics 2023

Students and Topics/ Research Questions

Anton J Aslund

Alignment Down Under: An Analysis of Australia's Decision to Join the AUKUS Trilateral Security Partnership

Harriet Broomfield

Tikanga Māori, Multispecies Justice, and New Zealand's Resource and Environment Management System

Jackson Burgess

What Motivates Students in New Zealand to Vote (or Not)?

Freja Cook

Locked up in Opinion: Exploring Barriers to Rehabilitative Justice

Eileen Corcoran

No place to put down roots: The prioritisation of private property rights over secure housing rights in Aotearoa New Zealand: causes, implications, and alternatives

Eleanor Evans

Exploring the Importance of Social Mobility in Understanding Income Inequality in Aotearoa, New Zealand

Elizabeth Layn Flett

Universal Basic Income as a Non-Reformist Reform: Implications of Neoliberal Subjectification

Lukas Hakansson

Establishing causality between religious Zionist ideology and Settlement expansion in the West Bank post-1967

Bradley Hartnell

Navigating Global Shifts: Evaluating New Zealand's Response to International Security Changes Since 2008

Ashleigh M Keenan

Ngāti Kahungunu and Climate Change Adaptation: Weaving Indigenous Knowledge into Climate Resilience

Alexia Preen

Feminist Aspirations in a Masculine World: The Theorising and Practice of Feminist Foreign Policy

Eva Templeton

Aotearoa's legal personhood laws: Unique or universal? An exploration into the concept of legal personhood for nature, including an analysis of New Zealand's personhood laws alongside international examples

Thomas Watene

National's Youth Offender Bootcamps: A Penal Populist Trojan Horse Carrying Evidence-based Policy?

Emily Williams-Davies

What impact have Labour Government's tax policies had on income inequality in New Zealand since the 1980s?